OKAY IS GIVEN SILK MILL PLAN

Susquehanna Company Program Is Approved by Federal Court Master.

PLANT HERE MAY BENEFIT

Possibility of Increased Operations Seen as Result of New Move

Reorganization of the Susquehanna Silk Mills operating a branch plant in Marion appeared imminent today following the announcement in New York City yesterday by Referee Peter B Olney that he planned to file a report approving the reorganization proposal with several modifications The Associated Press reported in a news dispatch from New York

"All objections to the plan as modified have been withdrawn according to Olney who was appointed special master by Federal Judge Henry W Goddard of New York to study the reorganization proposal of the company now in trusteeship

The special master's approval of reorganization must come before Judge Goddard for confirmation before reorganization steps can be taken No date was set for submission of the recommendations to Judge Goddard

'I expect to find the company solvent under the definition of the bankruptcy act and believe the modified plan (for reorganization) is feasible capable and fair Master Olney said

If the reorganization setup ... comes effective it is understood the company will be lifted from trusteeship and restored to the ranking of a private concern excepting for a provision that holders of voting trust certificates may vote at the end of three years whether the business of the company be liquidated in whole or in part

It also was understood that if the reorganization plan becomes effective the way would be cleared for increased operations in the mills the company operates in different cities including Marion

The principal approved modifications of the setup are that a corporation will be formed probably under the laws of Pennsylvania to receive and hold title to real estate and buildings of plants located at Lewistown Northumberland and Lock Haven Pa Plants at these three places have been idle for a number of months The property at these places is to be liquidated as the board of directors determines

Class A stock under the plan will be redeemable out of proceeds of this liquidation in whole or in part at $20 a share a figure reported to be its par value

Votes representing a two-thirds majority of the outstanding shares would be needed from holders of voting trust certificates to decide that the business of the company be liquidated in whole or in part at the end of a three-year period

No contract of employment for a fixed period can be made with officers of the company

The Manhattan offices of the company will be moved nearer the silk marketing district of the city

Chairman Doughton Democrat of North Carolina of the ways and means committee, where tax legislation must originate, said he did not see that Mr Roosevelt's request for funds—which he regarded as routine—necessarily meant new tax legislation would be sought He reiterated it was his disposition to await definite word from the White House or the treasury before doing anything at all on taxes

LANDON HITS "WASTE" IN NEW DEAL AS KNOX CALLS G. O. P. TO WAR

KANSAN FINDS FLAWS IN FOES

Claims Proof of Failure Found in Fact Only Few More Have Work Now.

SILENT ON HIS CAMPAIGN

Declares Democrats Have Provided No Solution of Major U S Problems

By The Associated Press

TOPEKA Kans Jan 30—Gov Alf M Landon decried political writers of the new deal as stumbling blocks to recovery last night while cheering Kansas Republicans hailed him as their party's logical presidential nominee

In his first public analysis of national issues the Kansas governor found flaws in almost every undertaking of the Roosevelt administration

But he remained silent on the presidential campaign launched in his behalf yesterday

Speech Climaxes Rally

The address climaxed a Kansas day rally in which state Republicans adopted resolutions virtually projecting him into the G O P presidential picture It was broadcast nationally

The clinching proof of the new deal's failure is that almost as many persons are out of work today as there were when it first set up shop he told an applauding audience of 2 300

The administration has presented no permanent solution of our major problems

I greatly appreciate the expression of those who know me best he said of a two fold maneuver by supporters to put him up for the presidential nomination

Certain of 18 Votes

The Republican state central committee indorsed him—making certain 18 Landon votes at the Cleveland convention — and the Kansas Day club broke a 43-year-old tradition against political indorsements by pledging itself to Landon as a candidate

The governor alternating his views of the nation's problems with critical barbs at the present administration charged the new deal with delaying the return of prosperity and condemned half-baked legislation mal administration and the dangerous shortcuts to permanent chaos attempted in the name of emergency

He urged Republicans to go into

Fight To Save Victim of Gas Fumes Is Lost

Luther G Myers, Found Near Death in Room, Dies at City Hospital

The fight of physicians nurses and Marion firemen to save Luther G Myers who was believed dead of carbon monoxide poisoning when found Tuesday night in his room at 117 Union street was lost today at 1 10 a m when he died at the City hospital

Myers a resident of Marion for the last three years died without regaining consciousness Hour after hour yesterday and last night oxygen tanks were brought into use to save him and for six hours Tuesday night and Wednesday morning Marion firemen worked over him with an inhalator

Use of the inhalator as first aid treatment in the emergency was responsible for having been able to move Myers to the hospital the attending physician said With out the treatment it is believed Myers would have died within a short time after he was found at 10 20 Tuesday night by occupants of the home who heard moans coming from his room

Carbon monoxide poisoning was the cause of death but it was impossible to ascertain just how much of the poison his system had absorbed the physician said

Myers came to Marion three years ago from Arkansas After working for a time on farms in the vicinity of the city, and for eight months on the Marion County Children's home farm, he was employed by W J Boltz at the Boltz meat market at 671 East Center street.

Little is known of his life before he came to Marion, except that in Arkansas he was at one time a railroader and a laundry employe

His parents Mr. and Mrs C E Myers live at DeQueen, Ark., and two brothers, W C Myers and Roy G Myers, live at Tulsa and Shawnee, Okla., respectively.

TALMADGE MEN LAUNCH BOOM

Governor's Aid Says He Wants "Practical Plan To Put Gene Before People"

SLIM CROWD AT RALLY

Texas Enthusiast Predicted 10,000 Would Attend, Manager Says 2,400 There.

By The Associated Press

MACON, Ga., Jan 30 — Followers of Gov. Eugene Talmadge sought a plan today to further him as a Democratic presidential possibility on the strength of the grass roots rally which invited him to become a candidate

We are trying to work out some practical plan to put Gene before the American people said Hugh Howell chairman of the Georgia state Democratic committee

The southern committee to uphold the Constitution will carry on to that end

Rally Crowd Slim

Critics of Talmadge's opposition to the canonization of President Roosevelt however pointed out that only about a fourth as many persons attended the convention as had been expected by its sponsors

The convention hall manager estimated 2 400 persons attended the rally yesterday John Henry Kirby wealthy Texas lumberman, who sponsored it with Talmadge had predicted 10 000 would be present The organizers later blamed inclement weather for keeping down the size of the crowd

I was very much surprised at the crowd I expected at least 10 000 people commented the senior senator from Georgia Walter F George supporter of President Roosevelt

Indorsed by Delegates

Talmadge received the indorsement of the anti Roosevelt meeting on a resolution introduced by Howell There was scattering opposition from out of state visitors

Although Georgia's anti new deal governor said a few days ago any sane man is willing to be president a smile was his only reply to the request that he enter the primary lists against the President

Rep Eugene Cox who like the rest of the Georgia congressional delegation is pledged to the renomination of Roosevelt said of Talmadge's address assailing the new deal

"It was the most barren effort I ever heard emanate from a public man—a perfect hodge-podge—without meaning and without sense'

PUBLISHER HITS AT HIDDEN TAX

Tells Business It "Has Unbeatable Case If It Stands Up and Fights" for Rights.

WARNS OF ADDED LEVIES

Also Strikes at "Open Defiance of Constitution" and "Socialism" at Washington.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., Jan 30—Col Frank Knox Chicago publisher and a possibility for the Republican presidential nomination, last night urged business as a public trust to stand up and fight instead of complaining

He said the new deal administration had stolen the cloak of the Democratic party under which to hide its own socialistic skeleton'

He advocated a widespread program for revealing hidden taxes asserting this is no sham battle these new dealers are putting up The prize they covet is to run American affairs to suit themselves

Says Case Unbeatable

Addressing 1 200 Republicans of northern Ohio at the 33rd annual McKinley day banquet of the Tippecanoe club, Col Knox declared business by reason of its wide stock ownership has a case that is unbeatable—if it chooses to stand up and fight'

Let business go to the people and tell them the amount of taxes that have to be paid in order that this same public may be served he said Tell to employes the story of taxes Show them that if it were not for the increasing tax burdens imposed by this present administration that better wages could be paid."

He said 'open defiance of the Constitution," the "abject servility by a majority of senators and congressmen," and, attempts to discredit the supreme court had brought a situation unparalleled in America "since the days of the Civil war'

To Back Winner

Col Knox promised his full support to whoever won the party nomination at the June convention here

'I'll be behind the man until the last gun is fired" he said. 'I don't care who wins the nomination. This is no time for the exploitation of self ambitions

Seizing the anniversary of McKinley's birth as an opportunity to draw a parallel between the approaching campaign and the McKinley-Bryan struggle of 1896 Col. Knox said that, what American business—and the American people—needed in 1896 was a guarantee of a sound currency and a sound credit structure'

Policies of McKinley

Those things McKinley promised—and delivered," Knox continued

And now, coming across the years what American business—and the American people—do greatly need today are the same things, a sound currency and a sound credit structure'

Col Knox's speech was devoted almost exclusively to a denunciation

MAGICIAN AND MIND READER IN GOOD ACT AT PALACE THEATER

More than an hour of fun magic and mind reading is the current stage attraction at the Palace theater in connection with the showing of the feature picture Millions in the Air The double-show will close its two-day engagement tonight

The stage attraction is presented by Virgil clever magician and Gordon the Great entertaining mentalist Both men handle their parts in a showmanly manner

Virgil makes the first appearance and creates a favorable impression with the audience from the start with several fast moving and completely foolproof illusions including one that always gets this reviewer down snatching pigeons from the air with an empty but terfly net—that is it appears to be empty

Virgil's show is well dressed and his equipment is first class in every way The magician is a personable fellow and has worked out a neat line of patter which he dishes out with ease while going through his paces Several of his tricks are worked with the help of boys from the audience Their naive willingness to obey his command adds to the comedy angle of the presentation

Virgil's featured and widely three-sheeted illusions—sawing a woman in half burning a man alive and Hindu basket mystery and death on the Guillotine' are faithfully produced and not disappointing The best of these is sawing a woman in half It is not the old standard trick of placing a woman in a box and sawing through it with a man powered saw The equipment is a large buzz saw propelled by machinery which sends it spinning at several thousand revolutions a minute The woman is strapped on the machinery and the illusion of the buzz saw ripping through her is perfect

Virgil retires in favor of Gordon the Great but comes back later with several more offerings and a fast moving finale Gordon working without the usual assistant in the aisles appeared to please last night's near capacity audience He has the capacity of injecting clever answers in the regular routine replies to questions put to him by the audience Several answers were greeted with howls of laughter Questions ranged from the ordinary does my girl love me? and will I be successful in business? to 'when will my dogs have pups?' and where was my husband last night?'

The feature picture Millions in the Air is an interesting burlesque of radio's most popular amateur hour Heading the large cast are Willie Howard famous Whites Scandals comic Wendy Barrie John Howard popular stage dancer and Eleanore Whitney former tap dance pupil of Bill Robinson The tunes and dances are excellent The entire bill is recommended for light entertainment. —G H M

PLATO PROPHECY OF DICTATORSHIP CITED

Tells How Greek Philosopher Foresaw One Man Rule After Democracy.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., Jan 30 -More than 2,000 years before the word "fascism" was coined said Dr Zevi Diesendruck today, "Plato traced how democracy if prostituted must lead to dictatorship"

Dr. Diesendruck professor of Jewish philosophy at Hebrew Union college, has just completed what he says is the first translation of Plato's 'Republic" from the original Greek, into Hebrew

"We are struck with the deadly accuracy with which Plato has traced the development of a democracy to its place in the modern world" he said expressing the opinion however that history refutes Plato's work, "in which government was the business of trained selected individuals rather than seekers of power

Even so Dr Diesendruck continued social justice the keynote of Plato's philosophy is heard more and more as the pattern of modern living is developed

Political idealism visualized by Plato, he declared may be of influence in Palestine where "people are in a plastic stage politically and socially"

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Child's Health.

Not so long ago I told you about the decrease in infant mortality. I pointed out that the baby today has a far better chance of surviving the first year of life, than the baby had 25 years ago.

Today, I want to speak about some of the ways of keeping the young child well.

A child may be backward in his school work, not because of mental deficiency, but because of some physical defect. Enlarged and diseased tonsils and adenoids may retard the progress of the school child. One with poor sight or hearing is unable to compete with his schoolmates. In consequence the child is uninterested in his studies. He is discouraged and may become delinquent.

It is amazing to see the improvement, mental and physical, that takes place when the physical defect is corrected. The child no longer appears dull. He learns faster and certainly is a lot happier.

Many parents fail to realize what will happen to a child who cannot keep up with his school work. This is the penalty of being repeatedly absent from school. Chronic coughs, colds, sore throats and the infections of childhood serve as stumbling blocks to the child's welfare.

The time to take the youngster to the physician is before real illness appears. A thorough physical examination should be made. If there is any defect it should be corrected.

School conditions promote the dangers of communicable diseases. Of course, every child should be vaccinated against smallpox and immunized against diphtheria. If you live in a section where typhoid is prevalent, it is advisable to have innoculations to prevent that.

Within recent years many children have been safeguarded against whooping cough and scarlet fever by the use of special vaccines. Consult with your doctor if there is an outbreak of these diseases in your community. The same advice applies to other communicable diseases, such as measles and chicken pox.

It should be the rule to take the child to the doctor for a complete physical checkup twice a year. Very often minor defects will be detected which, if allowed to persist, would become more serious with the passage of time.

MOTHER WHO KILLED HER SON GETS CHAIR

Unperturbed on Hearing Judge Sentence Her To Die Week of March 16.

By The Associated Press

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Jan. 30—Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood, 27, yesterday heard herself sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison the week of March 16, and accepted it with the same apathy that marked her attitude during her trial for drowning her child.

County Judge Jonathan D. Wilson pronounced sentence with eyes downcast, but the blond young widow, attired in the same black dress she wore at her trial, stared unflinchingly at him.

"I must do my duty as I see it," the judge said as he called the defendant before him for formal sentence. Mrs. Sherwood's conviction of first degree murder by an Orange county jury made the death sentence mandatory. The verdict included a recommendation of mercy, which will be sent to Gov Herbert H. Lehman.

The former burlesque dancer will be taken to the Sing Sing death house within two days, jail attaches said.

THREE NOW IN RACE FOR COUNTY OFFICE

Elmer Shaw, Y. M. C. A. Office Secretary, Latest To Announce

A three-cornered campaign for the Republican nomination for county recorder was assured today when Elmer M. Shaw, for 10 years office secretary of the Marion Y. M. C. A., announced he will seek the Republican nomination for that office at the May 12 primary.

The campaign will be his first bid for a public office. He has been secretary of the Marion Recreational Softball commission for nine years and is a graduate of Marion Business college.

He said his only campaign platform will be assurance of efficient and economical service.

He and Mrs. Shaw and their one child live at 217 Clover avenue.

Mr. Shaw's declaration of candidacy follows announcements of Stuart E. Jones of 467 Pearl street and Gayle H. Owens of 971 Sheridan road that they will be candidates for the Republican nomination for recorder.

Reds and Greys Hot At It In Underwear Tiff

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 30—A Cincinnati merchant's report that customers still buy the old fashioned red flannel underwear drew from Columbus department store buyers the query today, "what folks?"

But the buyers soon moderated their amazement, and after declaring there wasn't a suit of the famous old itchers in their stocks, turned helpful first and then reminiscent.

On the helpful side, they offered to put in a special order for the reporter.

"Now," said they, "we'll get you a suit, it will only cost $10.

"Or, if that's too much, we can get you the old iron-gray heavies for $7."

Searching his memory and files, one buyer found one Columbus customer for the reds, an elderly lady with rheumatism. She has ordered them through his store for years.

The buyers said only one mill manufactured the reds now, and only six the grays.

"Not even country stores carry the reds now," said A. J. Dworsky. "The reds had no style. They were too baggy. A man didn't like to take off his shirt in the Pullman washroom."

To aid farmers by reducing imports of raw materials that might be replaced by domestic products the Polish government has increased its tariff on certain oilseeds and animal and vegetable fats.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL STAMP ISSUED

The first commemorative postage stamp to be issued in the new year will be in recognition of the centennial anniversary of the independence of Texas. The new stamps, 20,000 of which have been ordered by Postmaster L. L. Lamborn, are of the three-cent denomination and match the special delivery stamp in size. They are printed in purple and in oval panels at either side are portraits of Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin.

They will be on sale first at Gonzales, Tex., on March 2, and other places on March 3, or as soon after as production will permit.

Commemorative also of the centennial is the half dollar being issued in celebration of the occasion. E. R. Bondley, a clerk at the postoffice and also a collector, is among the hundreds who are placing orders for the coin.

Another stamp issued since the first of the year is a 16-cent special delivery airmail stamp which will be printed in bi-color to replace the stamp now printed in blue ink.

For Quick Cough Relief, Mix This Remedy at Home

No Cooking! No Work! Real Saving!

You'll never know how quickly a bad winter cough can be relieved until you try this famous recipe. It is used in more homes than any other cough remedy because it gives more prompt, positive results. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle.

Into a pint bottle pour 2½ ounces of Pinex then add granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Syrup is easily made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few minutes until dissolved. No cooking needed. This gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money and it's a much better remedy. It never spoils and tastes fine.

Instantly you feel its penetrating effect. It loosens the phlegm, helps clear the air passages, and soothes the irritated membranes. This three-fold action explains why it brings such quick relief in distressing coughs.

Pinex is a concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its soothing effect on throat membranes. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

THE BOOMERANG CLUE

...Although neither is positive that the tanned and handsome chap Bobby Jones found dying at the foot of a cliff actually was murdered, both Bobby and Frankie are determined to investigate with Mr. Bassington-ffrench, should it appear at the scene of the crime very opportunely. Besides, someone has tried to murder Bobby with an overdose of morphine, and he resents that fact. Perhaps the two events interlock. Frankie must do the leg work, since Bobby is still in the hospital.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN
Lord Marchington

FRANKIE lost no time in setting to work. She attacked her problem that same evening.

"Father," she said, "do you know Mr. Bassington-ffrenches?"

Lord Marchington, who was reading a political article, did not quite take in the question. "It's not the French so much as the Americans," he said severely. "All this tomfoolery and conference—wasting the nation's time and money."

Frankie abstracted her mind until Lord Marchington, running like a railway train along an accustomed line, came as it were to a halt at a station.

"The Bassington-ffrenches," repeated Frankie.

"What about 'em?" asked Lord Marchington.

Frankie didn't know what about them. She made a statement, knowing well enough that her father enjoyed contradicting.

"They're a Yorkshire family, aren't they?"

"Nonsense—Hampshire. There's the Shropshire branch, of course, and then there's the Irish lot. Which are your friends?"

"I'm not sure," said Frankie, accepting the implication of friendship with several unknown people.

"Not sure? What do you mean? You must be sure."

"People drift about so, nowadays," said Frankie.

"Drift—drift—that's about all they do do. In my day we asked people. Then one knew where one was—fellow said he was the Hampshire branch — very well, your grandmother married my second cousin. It made a link."

"It must have been too sweet," said Frankie. "But there really isn't time for genealogical and geographical research nowadays."

"No—you've no time nowadays for anything but drinking these poisonous cocktails." Lord Marchington gave a sudden yelp of pain as he moved his gouty leg which some free imbibing of the family port had not improved.

"Are they well off?" asked Frankie.

"The Bassington-ffrenches? Couldn't say. The Shropshire lot have been hard hit, I believe. Death duties and one thing or another. One of the Hampshire ones married an heiress. An American woman."

"One of them was down here the other day," said Frankie. "Looking for a house, I believe."

"Funny idea. What should anyone want with a house down here?"

That thought Frankie, was the question.

On the following day she walked into the office of Messrs. Wheeler & Owen, house and estate agents.

Mr. Owen himself sprang up to receive her. Frankie gave him a gracious smile and dropped into a chair.

"And what can we have the pleasure of doing for you, Lady Frances? You don't want to sell the castle, I suppose. Ha, ha!" Mr. Owen laughed at his own wit.

"I wish we could," said Frankie. "No, as a matter of fact," I believe a friend of mine was down here the other day—a Mr. Bassington-ffrench. He was looking for a house."

"Ah, yes, indeed! I remember the name perfectly. Two small f's."

"That's right," said Frankie.

"He was making inquiries about various small properties with a view to purchase. He was obliged to return to town the next day so could not view many of the houses, but I understand he is in no great hurry. Since he left, one or two suitable properties have come into the market, and I have sent him on particulars but have had no reply."

"Did you write to London—or to the—er—country address?" inquired Frankie.

"Let me see now." He called to a junior clerk. "Frank, Mr. Bassington-ffrench's address."

"Roger Bassington-ffrench, Esq., Merroway Court, Staverley, Hants," said the junior clerk glibly.

"Ah!" said Frankie. "Then it wasn't my Mr. Bassington-ffrench. This must be his cousin. I thought it was odd his being here and not looking me up."

"Quite so—quite so," said Mr. Owen intelligently.

"Let me see, it must have been the Wednesday he came to see you."

"That's right. Just before six-thirty. We close at six-thirty. I remember particularly because it was the day when that sad accident happened. Man fell over the cliff. Mr. Bassington-ffrench had actually stayed by the body till the police came. He looked quite upset when he came in here. Very sad tragedy, that, and high time something was done about that bit of path. The Town Council have been criticized very freely, I can tell you, Lady Frances. Most dangerous. Why we haven't had more accidents than we have, I can't imagine."

"Extraordinary," said Frankie.

She left the office in a thoughtful mood. As Bobby had prophesied, all Mr. Bassington-ffrench's actions seemed clear and above-board. He was one of the Hampshire Bassington-ffrenches, he had given his proper address, he had actually mentioned his part in the tragedy to the house agent.

Was it possible that, after all, Mr. Bassington-ffrench was the completely innocent person he seemed?

Frankie had a qualm of doubt. Then she refuted it.

"No," she said to herself. "A man who wants to buy a little place would either get here earlier in the day, or else stay over the next day. You wouldn't go into a house agent's at six-thirty in the evening and go up to London the following day. Why make the journey at all? Why not write?"

No, she decided, Bassington-ffrench was the guilty party.

Her next call was the police station.

Inspector Williams was an old acquaintance, having succeeded in tracking down a maid with a false reference who had absconded with some of Frankie's jewelry.

"Good afternoon, Inspector."

"Good afternoon, your ladyship. Nothing wrong, I hope?"

"Not as yet, but I'm thinking of holding up a bank soon because I'm getting so short of money."

The Inspector gave a rumbling laugh in acknowledgement of this witticism.

"As a matter of fact, I've come to ask questions out of sheer curiosity," said Frankie.

"Is that so, Lady Frances?"

"Now do tell me this, Inspector—that man who fell over the cliff only had one photograph on him, didn't he? Somebody told me three!"

The Inspector, however, proves a willing source.

ESCAPES

"I escape most periodic pain because I act promptly at the first symptom. I start taking Capudine every three or four hours. This often prevents pain altogether. Why don't you use Capudine, too?" (No narcotics or opiates.)

Junior Learns From Betty of Rod's Scheme for Taking Care of Baby Faith.

INSTINCTIVELY "there to attention" at Betty Gibbs' query to Junior, and I knew Dicky was watching the face of the three children as closely as I was. But I felt that his emotion was purely amusement at a ludicrous situation, while I was concerned for the possible stirring up of the jealousy which I know is latent between the two boys, although they really are trying to control it, and which I have seen flame into being upon more than one occasion.

Junior, though plainly bewildered by the advent of Mrs. Gibbs and Betty, evidently felt it incumbent on him to do the honors as host as best he might.

"There must be some mistake," he said. "My mother's planning for me to go to the mountains today, but she probably didn't know you and your mother were coming to visit."

"She did so," Betty retorted, "and we know your grown-ups were going to the mountains. That's the reason we're here. We're not visiting. We're going to take care of the baby, so Mrs. Blekett can go on the trip."

"Oh!" Junior turned faintly accusing eyes on me. "I didn't know. Nobody told me."

"There wasn't time to tell you, darling," I said with a mingling of truth and mendacity that must have puzzled whichever assistant to the recording angel was hovering near.

Roderick Embarrassed

"But Roderick knew." Betty threw the bombshell I had been dreading.

"Rod!" Junior's voice was incredulous, and as he turned toward his cousin, I saw Roderick's face go brick red again.

"Sure thing," Betty said nonchalantly, with no conception of the havoc she was strewing in her wake.

"My mother saw him as she was leaving here yesterday, and she told him she was going to bring me over today, and he told her he'd planned it all out."

Roderick's face resembled a beet when Betty finished her speech. His anxiety to impress Betty through her mother with his clever scheming had been his undoing, and he was now floundering over his head in the pit he had unwittingly dug for himself.

"Oh!"

The monosyllable from my young son's lips was so filled with understanding, disillusionment and rancor that I shivered. There was something ugly in it. No child's voice had a right to sound like that, I told myself, even as Junior found additional words.

"I see," he said. "Good work, Rod, old kid. Fine scheme you hatched out. Ho, ho!"

His laughter was more distressing than his words, but I did not try to curb either. This was distinctly no time for the intervention of grownups, and I flashed a warning glance at Dicky which he answered with an understanding nod.

Katherine and Mrs. Gibbs fortunately were absorbed in discussing Faith's routine for the day, so that the three children were unhindered in playing out their little drama.

From somewhere Roderick found courage to answer Junior's laugh with a raucous, palpably strained "Ho! ho!" But Betty did not laugh. She did not even smile, but looked from one boy to the other, her piquant face and big brown eyes alive with attention and curiosity.

"Say!" she said suddenly, "I don't understand this a bit. Do you mean you're not both going to stay here today?"

She was looking at Junior as she spoke, and whether from the natural disappointment of a child at being deprived of an extra playfellow, or from the innate coquetry which some feminine creatures manifest from their cradles to their graves, she was making it very clear to him that her enjoyment of the day would be much diminished if he did not share it.

It was clear to Roderick, also, and there was chagrin in the look he shot at her. But it was just the fillip Junior needed, and I was amused, though a bit ashamed of the sudden swagger in his voice and posture as he answered her.

"What would I want to stay around here for when I've got a chance to go on a trip like the one we're taking?" he asked grandiloquently. "A fellow doesn't get a chance like this every day. I can stay here and fish any old time."

Betty's face darkened.

"Smarty!" she threw at him venomously. Then her curiosity conquered her chagrin.

"Well! If it's so fine," her tone was heavily sarcastic, "why doesn't Roderick go, too?"

I fairly held my breath at her question, and I saw Dicky's eyes go to Junior's face, and also saw the unconscious look of appeal which Roderick sent him.

Would my boy's instincts and training hold, I wondered, in the face of this opportunity to "get even" with Roderick by revealing the real reason for his staying home from the trip?

CITY'S 1935 FIRE LOSS IS LOWEST IN 16 YEARS

Damage to Property Placed at $17,692 in Annual Report of Chief T. J. McFarland.

Fire loss in Marion for 1935 was the lowest recorded here in 16 years, according to the annual report of Fire Chief T. J. McFarland, submitted to Mayor C. Frederick Smith and city council. The total loss for last year was $17,692.76, a decrease of $1,445.67 from the previous year, during which a loss of $19,138.43 was recorded.

The lowest previous loss since accurate records were begun in 1902, was recorded in 1919, when a $7,400 loss was tabulated.

Losses for the five-year period ending with 1935 show an average annual loss of $24,486.72. This, according to Chief McFarland, is the lowest average for a five year period on record since he became chief of the department in 1903.

Total fire calls for 1935 were 290, a decrease of 92 from the previous year. Of the 229 calls phone, 41 by alarm boxes, five received, 242 came in by telatelephone, 41 by alarm boxes, five from telephone and boxes and 11 were verbal. Sixteen false alarms, an increase of four over 1934, were received during 1935.

Other im... data covered in Chief McFarland's report includes the fact that in January the highest number of calls, 36, were received. The months of March and December were second high with 28 calls each. In July the fewest number of calls, 12, were received.

Of the 290 fires, 150 were in residences, five in apartments, three in coal sheds, two in offices, 35 were automobile fires, four truck fires and 11 were outside the city limits. The remainder were calls to extinguish minor fires in awnings, rubbish, grass and garages.

Eighty of the fires were caused when chimneys burned out and ignited roofs. 25 additional alarms were turned in when chimneys burned out causing only small damage and five of the residence fires were reported as being of incendiary origin.

Fifteen of the auto fires were caused as the result of flooded carburetors, five by a short circuit in the wiring and eight by cigarets dropped on inflammable material.

New equipment added to the department includes 3,000 feet of 2½ inch hose, 400 feet of 1 inch hose, a 90 gallon booster tank placed on No. 3 truck, six smoke masks, 12 salvage covers and 30 feet of 5 inch suction hose.

STOP THAT COLD IN ITS TRACKS!

Let It Not Get a Foothold!

A cold is nothing to "monkey with." It can take hold quickly and develop seriously. Take no chances on inviting dangerous complications. Treat a cold promptly and treat it for what it is—an internal infection. Take a preparation that is internal and one that is expressly for colds and not for a number of other things as well.

A wise thing to take is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine—for several reasons. Instead of a "cure-all," it is expressly a cold tablet. It is also an internal treatment which a cold, an internal infection, requires. And it does four important things. First, it opens the bowels. Second, it checks the infection in the system. Third, it relieves the headache and fever. Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is absolutely safe to take. For more than forty years it has been the stand-by of thousands in the relief of colds. Every druggist sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Always ask for it by the full name and look for the letters L B Q stamped on every tablet. The few pennies' cost may save you a lot of trouble.

The Stars Say--

For Friday, Jan. 31.

A day of intriguing and surprising conditions is read from the lunar and mutual aspects. This sign makes it profitable to deal with mergers, rings, secret societies or by methods of intrigue, conspiracy or strategem. A very lively and enterprising day in this connection is forecast. Sign all writings with precaution. In social, domestic or romantic affairs, there will be much liveliness and jollification. Influential friends figure conspicuously in the affairs.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of intrigue and surprise, with profitable connections with mergers, combines or secret bodies, or through measures of subtlety and secret understandings. A very lively year is presaged, but in all writings use caution.

A child born on this day may be sensitive, emotional, artistic and fond of unusual pursuits or mysterious adventures.

Notable natively: Eddie Cantor, comedian.

DOCTORS KNOW!

There is a remedy for children's biliousness.

Mothers, read this.

THREE STEPS TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION

Mothers—set a dependable dose of liquid laxative, regulating the amount to suit the age, condition and individual need.

Tomorrow, take less: let the regular muscular action of the bowels do part of the work—

Reduce the dose each time, until regularity has been completely restored.

A constipated child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are at least a million families that would have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any druggists, anywhere. It contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that form no habit.

Try Syrup Pepsin! It will make you wonder how you could ever get along with any cathartic that disturbs the system, and actually retards your return to regularity.

CAVALCADE SET TO MAKE 1936 DEBUT

Expected To Run Today at Santa Anita After Eight Months' Idleness

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Jan 30—Cavalcade the chocolate soldier of the American turf faced the barrier today for his 1936 debut at Santa Anita

The king of three year olds in 1934 will go to the post in a mile event late today if the weather clears Trainer Bob Smith said Cavalcade was in good condition to start and he saw no reason for holding him back any longer

Last week the horse was clocked at 1 36 2 5 for a mile

Observers felt that Smith's decision to start the Kentucky Derby winner of two years ago meant Cavalcade would evade a meeting with Discovery in the $5 000 San Carlos handicap Saturday It appeared unlikely he would be forced to race twice in three days after being out of action since last spring

Cavalcade hasn't started a race since he unseated his rider Johnny Gilbert in the suburban handicap at Belmont last May

Cavalcade's reputation probably will install him a favorite against today's field of five but Neil McCarthy's Pick On C A Peck's West Main A G Vanderbilt's Scotch Bun and Mrs A M Creech's Regardless might easily outdistance the 1934 champion since he has been out so long

Urge Major League Players To Loaf During Off-Season

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK Jan 30—The three R's advocated by Larrupin Lou Gehrig for baseball's off season— reading rest and relaxation parallel closely the prescription handed out by most major league medicine men the managers for the benefit of their athletes

Lest it be supposed that they are speaking mainly from personal fondness for carpet slippers and a comfortable place by the fireplace these frigid winter nights Rogers Hornsby the rajah of the St Louis Browns comments

I admit fellows like Frankie Frisch and I have to take it every during the off season but younger men too often overdo because they figure they can get into shape for playing baseball easier in the training camp They should not play basketball or take part in other strenuous competitive sports They should stay away from gymnasiums Hunting is all right, in fact anything that takes a lot of walking is good

Considering that major league baseball involves seven months of steady concentrated activity, Frisch's tip to the younger generation is to devote the winter to concentrated loafing

Banjo-playing Charley Grimm popular pilot of the Chicago Cubs takes issue with the Frisch doctrine says Charley Players should keep in the best possible condition during the winter Hunting is the best sport to keep the legs hardened and the system from softening up The more a fellow keeps in shape during the off season the easier it is for him to get in playing condition in the spring Pitchers should rest their arms completely"

Golf is all right but anything more strenuous is frowned upon by Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees Joe draws no definite line on what his charges should or should not do during the winter but he trusts they will avoid world tours and keep away from basketball courts

Steve O'Neill Cleveland's pilot warns his pitchers against playing handball or otherwise endangering the muscles of their salary arms but doesn't object to this particular indoor sport so far as other players are concerned

Steve recommends a certain amount of off season routine in or out of a gymnasium So does Charley Dressen Cincinnati's peppery leader who adds "Most of the players have enough sense not to over-do during the winter"

Earl Thomas six foot-three inch Ohio State center is the smallest pivotman in the Big Ten. John Gee Michigan six foot-nine inches is the tallest

Rio Grande handed Franklin university Columbus its eighth defeat in nine starts 45 to 33

COACHES TO STUDY GRIDIRON RULES

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH Pa. Jan 30—The rules committee of the American Football Coaches association will have subjects aplenty to talk about Saturday but the general impression remains the mentors will favor leaving standing regulations largely alone

The 30-odd committeemen will meet in closed session Saturday morning to draft their recommendations to the National Football Rules committee They will be guided by a questionnaire sent out by Lou Little of Columbia, chairman of the coaches committee

There are more than a dozen proposals on the list but the opinion is elimination of the "slow whistle" and moving goal posts back from the end zone to the goal line will get most attention

NEW PLANS FOR OHIO HIGH SCHOOL CAGE TOURNEY COMPLETE

Commissioner Townsend Announces Setup for District and State Contests.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan 30—H. R. Townsend Ohio's commissioner of high school athletics said today that the new method of staging the county sectional district and state basketball tournaments is ready to go into operation

The high school athletic chief disclosed the sites of the various district tournaments and how many each will send to Columbus for the state classic in which 16 class A" and 16 B quintets will participate For years only eight teams in each division took part in the state event.

The northeastern and northwestern districts get the lion's share of entries under the new set up The northeastern section gets five of the 16 class A representatives and three of the 16 class B while the northwestern area is awarded four in each division

That allotment leaves seven class A and nine class B teams divided among the other four districts One team is sent to the state tourney for each 12 in the district

The northeastern district is so filled with teams that regional events will be held to decide which shall take part in the district tourney at Akron

Sites of the other district tourneys and the number of teams each will send to the state tourney are

Southeastern Athens one class A Chillicothe and Portsmouth one class B each

Central Delaware one class A Westerville two class B

Southwestern Cincinnati one class A one class B Dayton two class A one class B Springfield one class B

Northwest Toledo Defiance Sandusky Bucyrus one class A each Fremont Carey Leipsic Shawnee township (Lima) one class B each

Eastern Dennison two class A and two class B (preliminary class A regional meets at Tiltonsville and Dennison and class B at Cadiz New Concord Marietta and Dover)

The southeastern district board has been unable to meet because of heavy snows to decide which counties shall send teams to Chillicothe and Portsmouth and there's an argument in the southwestern district but otherwise the tournamen set up is all clear Townsend said

The southwestern area scrap was caused by protests from Middletown, Hamilton and Springfield over being forced to play at Dayton The teams object to performance in the Dayton coliseum which boasts one of the largest playing courts in the state A search is being conducted for a court on which the teams can agree Townsend said

HARDING TEAM TO PARTICIPATE IN DELAWARE MEET

Harding High of Marion along with teams from 14 other schools will compete in the Central District class A tournament at Delaware in March The tournament will return to Delaware after being held in Columbus five years

St Mary Parochial cagers and teams from rural schools selected in the Marion county tournament will compete in the class B tournament at Westerville Among the nine other counties represented in the class B tourney are Morrow Union and Delaware

In addition to Harding High, other teams in the class A meet at Delaware are Columbus North, South East West Central and Aquinas Delaware Willis Grandview Bexley Mt Vernon Newark Lancaster Circleville and Westerville

Tax Program To Be Mapped

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Jan 30—Attorney General Cummings said today a tax program to provide for the new farm plan will be sent to Capitol Hill within a week

The cost for one year of the soil conservation subsidy plan has been estimated at $440 000 000

The attorney general told newsmen at his press conference that the question of reenacting retroactively the AAA's processing taxes was being studied Secretary Wallace said yesterday the agricultural treasury and justice departments were engaged in formulating a plan for collecting the $200 000 000 of impounded levies returned to processors by the supreme court decision in the Rice Millers' case

Asked about such a plan the attorney general said

'That opens up a large field of taxation and law Would have to study many books to find out what is a retroactive tax when it can be assessed who it can be assessed on and numerous other studies. Would have to engage in a study of large aspects of the law'

Are you now engaged in such a study? a reporter asked

'Yes,' the attorney general replied adding after a pause

'In a way The department is always engaged in studying broad aspects of the tax question and this is one aspect we are studying right now

KNOX TELLS G. O. P. TO FIGHT FOR RIGHTS

tion of the national administration His cure for the ills of the nation was simple and all included—get rid of the new deal Democrats and install a Republican administration in Washington

Favors New Deal Foes

The Chicago publisher had a sympathetic feeling for anti new deal Democrats as did his audience The audience cheered widely when the orchestra played 'The Sidewalks of New York And when Knox rose to speak he addressed his remarks to fellow Republicans and Al Smith Democrats if any

Knox is aggressive and forceful in his speech Except for his sandy hair he bears a marked resemblance to former Gov James M Cox of Ohio

Going back to the campaign of 96 Knox made an indirect reference to President Roosevelt's effectiveness on the radio He described William Jennings Bryan's voice as promising deliverance from all economic ills if the people would forsake the gold standard and debase their money with silver and follow him

Had Sweet Voice

It was a dulcet voice Knox said a voice with witchery in it And radio existed as it does now William Jennings Bryan might well have become President of the United States

In 1890 tens of thousands of Democrats stayed away from the polls or voted the Republican ticket because they could not stomach the unsound policies of their standard bearer Knox said

Next November hundreds of thousands of Democrats will stay away from the polls or vote the Republican ticket he continued for the very same reason that 40 years ago they refused to support William Jennings Bryan

But the situation today is vastly different from what it was then Today the American people are not only struggling with unsound financial policies, but they are face to face with something that is not an American form of government

Names Real Democrats'

Knox called the roll of men who he said were real Democrats and who do not approve of the new deal—Alfred E Smith John W Davis Joseph B Ely Albert C Ritchie James A Reed

And I suspect that your fellow townsman and fine citizen Newton D Baker often grieves over the forsaken traditions and principles of the party he served so well he added

Knox said that President Roosevelt had caused to be written into law wholly or in part the 12 principal planks of the Socialist platform while largely disregarding the pledges of his own party He pointed out that the Literary Digest poll disclosed that a majority of those who voted the Socialist ticket in 1932 approve the new deal policies

Knox declared that steadily since the day of his inauguration President Roosevelt had been usurping the powers of the people had headed the country toward a dictatorship and that only the supreme court had protected the rights of the people from the political ambitions of those in public office

In open defiance of the Constitution laws are written by the brain trusters of the executive department and sent to congress with a must tag attached to them Knox said

At his command congress gave Mr Roosevelt $4 800 000 000 of money belonging to the American people to spend as he saw fit and as a gesture of contempt the President used the congress as a sounding board for a political speech I refer to his message to the congress on the state of the nation

Views with Alarm

'In all earnestness I tell you that the American people have not faced so serious a situation since the days of the Civil war

In the months intervening between now and the national election the American people will have to decide for themselves between becoming vassals to a dictator in the guise of a Democratic President or remaining free citizens of a free republic There is no middle ground There is no other choice

We shall continue as a free nation or we shall become a nation with government in complete control of people's daily lives their savings and their occupations"

The supreme court decision declaring unconstitutional the NRA resulted directly in a pickup in business Knox said

The better times have not come he continued "as Mr Roosevelt so blithely said on his return from a fishing trip because we planned it that way—that is not unless 'we planned' as he says the action of the court"

The new dealers Col Knox said are attempting to make political capital out of the decisions in the NRA and AAA cases by attacking the supreme court

Strip the supreme court of its authority to interpret the Constitution and no protecting barrier is left between the rights and possessions of the people and the reaching hands of the new dealers he said

The American people have become disillusioned by the quintuplets begotten by 'the new deal Knox said the quintuplets of broken promises wasteful spending the high cost of living unsound currency and centralization of power

BURNS BARES APPEAL FOR $2,249,178,375

175 amounting in all to $2 249 178 375

The details of these estimates the necessity therefore and the reasons for their transmission at this time are set forth in the letter of the acting director of the bureau of the budget transmitted herewith with whose comments and observations thereon I concur'

Pop Patman Democrat of Texas promised a battle royal to provide cash by issuing currency against idle gold in the treasury He said he expected to call a meeting promptly of the steering committee backing his plan

The Patman group stepped back to let the baby bond bill go through promising to renew their campaign when the issue of finding the needed funds was reached

In asking congress late yesterday to fork over $2 217 000 000 to make the cash payments which the legislators insisted upon and $12 178 375 additional for administrative expenses the President was silent on the question of taxes

Powerful members of congress were known however to be considering advising Mr Roosevelt to delay the question until next session The White House was studying the taxes problem It was indicated that several weeks will elapse before it announces a decision

In lieu of new taxes it was believed that the treasury for the present at least would borrow to meet the bonus cost

Since no one knows how many veterans will choose to cash their bonus bonds next summer and how many will hold them for years to obtain the 3 per cent interest offered experts find it impossible to say just how much money will be needed in the near future

BORAH SET TO ENTER OHIO G.O.P. PRIMARY

Says He'll Decide Finally on Filing "Within a Week or So"

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Jan. 30—Senator William Edgar Borah of Idaho apparently is almost ready to place his name in the Ohio Republican presidential primary

He followed his denunciation Tuesday night of uninstructed delegations with announcement in Washington that he would decide definitely on filing in Ohio within a week or so"

To this one of the men Borah has entrusted with any necessary activity in Ohio former U S Senator Theodore McCulloch, added

That's all we can say now There may be something more later

Simultaneously a group of leaders of the Republican Bull Moose movement of 1912 announced in Chicago that Borah would open presidential campaign headquarters in Cleveland within the next two weeks

Organization Ohio Republicans stood pat on their determination to prevent pre-primary fights for delegates in the state by sending an uninstructed or favorite son delegation to the Cleveland convention

Former Gov Myers Y Cooper placed himself squarely against the Borah drive

Personally" he said I do not believe it a good thing for the party to have such a contest and I will do all I can to prevent it but if a contest must come it will be faced in a courageous and vigorous manner

Echoing views expressed recently by former Sen Simeon D Fess Cooper urged Borah's Ohio friends to have caution

National finances— A nation will survive to correct its political mistakes If an unsound financial program is coupled with such mistakes the nation faces destruction

Relief— We need desperately a cheaper simpler and more responsible relief administration throughout the nation'

Farm problem— A policy that is not limited in its benefits to immediate cash returns but seeks as well to rebuild the fertility of the soil would fit in with the demand of agriculture for equality with industry

The supreme court— The action of the supreme court in cutting away some of the errors in recent national legislation has given a healthy impetus to our entire economic life'

Capital Studies Landon Address

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Jan 30—A capital which has come to regard Gov Alf M Landon of Kansas as one of the formidable possibilities for the Republican presidential nomination read with interest today his indictment of the new deal on a charge of delaying the return of prosperity"

While Republicans applauded the speech and Democrats voiced such comment as 'terrible' political observers studied the address closely as the first public elaboration of Landon's philosophy on national issues

Watch Developments

With internal dissension in both parties and some spokesmen in each predicting wholesale shifts of allegiance among the voters next November students of politics were watching closely every new development

What will Gov Talmadge of Georgia do as the result of the invitation to become a presidential candidate issued to him yesterday at the Macon 'grass roots' meeting of Democrats dissenting from the new deal"

Would there be an attempt at the Democratic convention in June to merge the Talmadge forces with those of Alfred E Smith who was standing pat in his denunciation of the new deal and accusing Sen Robinson Democrat of Arkansas of trying to "cloud the issue?

Borah Move Eyed Too

Would Sen Borah's campaign in favor of instructed delegates to the Republican convention—a drive that runs directly counter to the wishes of some other party leaders—leave scars not easily healed?

These were some of the questions being asked today as the capital watched the kaleidoscopic whirl of political events.

Republicans were saying that Smith and Talmadge would deprive President Roosevelt of many votes but Democrats replied that many would rally to the new deal standard with the result that its strength would increase

Trio of Orphan Sisters Reunite After 18 Years

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND O Jan. 30—After 18 years separation three orphan sisters who lost trace of each other when each had her name changed and was adopted by a different couple have been reunited

The persistent efforts of Miss Margaret Krueger 29 led to the reunion She is the oldest of the three When she was 11 years old she was adopted by Mr and Mrs William Krueger of Cassilis O

Six months ago Margaret found her sister, Francis Colvin, a nurse who was living only eight miles from Margaret's foster parents

Time and again I passed your house on the way to and from Bellevue and never dreamed I had a sister there Frances said

The two sisters then joined in a search for the third. Learning her husband was an auto mechanic they concluded Toledo or Detroit would be the logical place to search

An advertisement in a Toledo paper titled A sister is looking for Mrs Joseph Gaskill was forwarded by a Negro wash woman in Toledo to the Gaskills in Minneapolis where they had recently moved from Toledo

A reunion here was the climax.

WITNESS ACCUSES KID CANN OF MURDER

Points Him Out in Court During Trial for Slaying of Weekly Publisher.

By The Associated Press

MINNEAPOLIS Jan 30—The long arm of the prosecution's star witness Wesley Anersch pointed an accusing finger at Isadore (Kid Cann) Blumenfeld in district court today as the machine gun killer of Walter Liggett militant weekly newspaper publisher

Blumenfeld at the behest of his counsel Thomas McKeekin stood up while the identification was made

Fred Pike handling the state's case led up to the time of the night of Dec 9 last when Andersch claims he stepped out a rear door of an apartment building and was nearly run down by the killer's automobile

How many persons were riding in the automobile" asked Pike

I don't know replied the witness but I saw two men'

Do you know who any of the occupants were"

Yes one

Who was the occupant of the car that you know?

Kid Cann'

'You mean the defendant Isadore Blumenfeld"

I don't know any Isadore Blumenfeld I know Kid Cann

Do you see him in this court room?

Yes right there and Andersch a lanky self styled mechanic stood up and extended his arm toward the kid

When the court warned counsel that that's not definite on the record McKeekin turned to the defendant and had him stand up

HALL ON TRIAL IN JAY MAISH BURGLARY

hand this morning to hear the trial Hall was neatly attired in a double breasted brown suit His 23-year old wife sat inside the courtroom rail and frequently whispered to Defense Attorney Francis

At the time of the arrest of Hall Beachum and Sauers city and county authorities said 35 burglaries in the 10 months prior to their apprehension including 23 in Marion were cleared up Police said Sauers confessed to the jobs the night of Oct 20 Included in the out-of town burglaries the prisoner admitted were five in Columbus three in Mansfield two in Kenton and one each in Bucyrus and Galion Prosecutor Michael said

Arrested for Columbus

Hall was the first of the two arrested being taken into custody of Columbus police When the loot was found in his home Marion police filed charges against him rather than turning him over to Columbus authorities The arrest of Beachum and Sauers took place a few days later

Hall was expected to present an alibi to the jury this afternoon His attorneys contends he is a dealer in old gold and purchased the articles found in his home in the conduct of his regular business

Jurors hearing the Hall case are Hayes Darst of near Prospect, Sam Weist of LaRue Fred Dutt of Prospect A M Peters of near Marion D A Timson of Caledonia and L E Prettyman John Stiffler Eliza M Parr Carl Werley Charles Stephenson James T Johnston and Ada Lippincott all of Marion.

DRIVER ESCAPES AS AUTO SKIDS

George Almendinger of Prospect escaped uninjured when his car skidded on the icy highway and overturned yesterday afternoon on the Newmans-Bethlehem road south of Marion A wrecking truck pulled the car onto the road and Mr Almendinger drove it home

O. E. KENNEDY IMPROVES

INFLATION RUMORS BOOST WHEAT PRICE

Rally Follows Slump Linked to Weakness of Foreign Markets

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO Jan 30—Renewal of inflation talk rallied wheat late today after prices had touched the lowest level witnessed in more than a month

The rallies followed Washington reports that the inflation bloc in congress had succeeded in appending to the farm bill a currency expansion plan with a view to restoring prices to 1926 parity A restraining influence on rallies though was continued weakness of the Winnipeg market

Wheat closed irregular ½ lower to ½ higher compared with yesterday's finish May 99¾@1 00 corn unchanged to ¼ up May 59¾@59⅞ oats unchanged to ⅛ higher and provisions unchanged to 10 cents decline

VETS' ORGANIZATIONS WILL MAP BONUS PLANS

Heads of Groups Will Meet Tonight To Consider Ways To Speed Filing of Applications.

As a supply of bonus payment application blanks reached Marion today, heads of three veterans organizations and a representative of the Red Cross prepared to hold a meeting tonight to arrange for helping prepare their applications.

Approximately 1,800 application blanks were received at noon today by M. E Baldwin, adjutant of Bird McGinnis post of the American Legion They came from state headquarters of the Legion in Columbus

Even before they arrived Commander Irving L. Dutt of the Legion asked heads of his organization, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled War veterans and a representative of the Red Cross to meet with him tonight to arrange help for veterans wishing to apply for bonus payments

Mr Baldwin said considerable time will be taken in the preparation of an application because of requirements that the blanks be filled with a typewriter and that fingerprints of applicants be taken. Also, each application must be notarized.

Another supply of blanks was expected today at the office of George T Geran, chairman of the Marion county soldiers and sailors' relief commission Mr Geran emphasized that the blanks will be sent to him only for distribution to service organizations wishing a supply of them and not for the commission to use. He said he and the commissioners are not planning to help prepare the application blanks because of the help promised by the veterans groups

Mr Geran's supply of forms was expected to come from the Cleveland regional office of the veterans administration

Meanwhile dozens of veterans today were calling at the Red Cross office and inquiring from heads of service organizations for application blanks All were informed that the preparation of applications would be delayed until plans for handling them are made tonight

Early estimates that $724,766 94 is due approximately 1300 Marion county veterans appeared today to be subject to a substantial reduction in view of the loans a majority of veterans already have obtained on their adjusted service (bonus) certificates Veterans have been able to borrow up to 50 per cent of the amounts due them and the amount borrowed will be deducted when the application for payment of the balance is made it was explained

ABOUT ANYTHING

IN AND AROUND MARION

Gives Up Title

Patrolman J M Kratzer of the Marion substation of the highway patrol has voluntarily surrendered his title of champion baby tender to Police Capt Ora DeWees As you might suspect, there's a story behind it.

It dates back to several months ago when Kratzer on an official call found himself assigned to the task of looking after a tiny baby being taken in a police car to the county juvenile detention home for care The child didn't approve of its custodian and told him so in unmistakable baby talk Capt DeWees saw to it that an account of that incident was reported to The Star, or at least that's what Patrolman Kratzer thinks

But the same situation in reverse came along this month when two-months-old Sally a girl abandoned at the Harding Memorial by unknown persons had to be taken from police station to the City hospital for care Capt DeWees drew the baby tending assignment that time Patrolman Kratzer contends that the police captain did such a good job looking after Sally that he should hold undisputed claim as the baby tending champ and furthermore would like to see Capt DeWees get public recognition for winning the title although Sally was reported to have made some disparaging cries while in the captain's care

Both Kratzer and DeWees will tell you they'd rather have a hardened criminal to look after than a few months-old baby that is crying for its mother

Congratulations— VETERANS

You Have Won Another Real Victory

AMERICA has recognized the debt she owes you. After years of waiting your sacrifices have been rewarded. You have won a well-earned victory — and we congratulate you on your achievement.

Many veterans are in need right now. Every one, particularly those who have homes and families, have gone without many of the necessities of life. You should have many things right now. There may be some delay, of course, in making the cash available to you, due to the tremendous amount of routine work necessary in Washington before the bonds can be issued and placed in your hands ready to use.

A Veteran's Word is as Good as His Bond

With this in mind, we are ready to give you the things you need now. You don't have to wait until the bonds are delivered to obtain the furnishings you and your families can use right now. Therefore, we invite every veteran to come in immediately, select the merchandise his family needs and it will be delivered to you at once — no down payment necessary. You can arrange to pay when Uncle Sam pays you. We are glad to contribute this service to help make happier, better homes in this community now.

The February Sale Saves You Money

You are doubly fortunate. This comes at a time when prices are still low plus the additional savings of the February Sale on which home furnishings are reduced from 15% to 50%.
